Report:

As directed by the District Election Officer, Mangaldoi , Darrang, an awareness program centered on the special summary revision of the electoral rolls, 2018 was held in the Sipajhar College premises on 1st Nov, 2017. Mr. Banamali Sarma , District Nodal Officer for the aforesaid program acted as resource person in the meeting. In this discussion he highlighted the importance of the inclusion of the name of the new voters belonging to the age group of 18 and above whose names have not yet been included in the voters list/in the electoral rolls and stressed the point that the concerned youngsters/persons should come forward to get their names included in the electoral rolls by taking advantage of the provisions of the special summary revision of the electoral rolls, 2018. He also spoke on the steps to be taken by the eligible voters while filling up the voter application forms.

Altogether 117 students as well as the Principal, Vice Principal and teachers attended the meeting. Dr. P.C. Deka, principal of the college also spoke a few words on the occasion and also urged the students to enroll themselves as voters in the electoral rolls and thereby strengthen the democratic processes of the country.

Prof. J.K. Hazarika, nodal officer of the college explained in brief the objectives of the program. He also offered vote of thanks to all those present.
